

The NAACP Saginaw Branch salutes
2017
Emerging
STEM Leaders!

SVSU Associate Professor of Electrical & Computer Engineering Rajani Muraleedharan, Ph.D., (fourth from left) hosted STEM Camp at Saginaw Valley State University in June 2017. Among the students who participated in the AT&T STEM camp were: Pasia Tardiff, junior at Heritage High School; Romel’O Ellis, a junior at Heritage High School; and Camp Infinity participants (not featured), Aamira Farrakhan, a 7th grade student at Maple Street Magnet Middle School for the Arts (Kalamazoo); and Shree Singh, a 5th grader at Woodcrest Elementary School in Midland.